

Punctuation exercise

Capital letters and full stops

it had rained for days and days it was great to see the sun again jack gazed across at the workshop grandpa had made for gran at the top of the cliff it clung to the edge of the land like a limpet a sudden wail from gran gave jack a shock

There are 9 capital letters and 5 full stops missing.

Did you spot them all?

Ask the pupil to read through the text and add in capital letters and full stops where necessary. Encourage the pupil to read aloud as this will help him/her identify where the sentences stop.