

DISCOVER MORE...

Prehistoric teeth

Allosaurus

- AL-oh-saw-russ
- Allosaurus lost teeth and grew new ones throughout its life.
- Length: 9m
- Weight: 2,000kg

Iguanodon

- ig-WHA-noh-don
- Iguanodon probably had a very long tongue.
- Length: 10m
- Weight: 4,000kg

Pliosaur

- pli-oh-saur
- Pliosaur ate fish and squid.
- Length: 15m
- Weight: 6,000kg

Mammoth

- ma-muhth
- It would take two people to lift a mammoth tusk.
- Length: 5m
- Weight: 7,000kg

yellow-door.net

Let's investigate Prehistoric Teeth • YD1202

©Yellow Door®

DISCOVER MORE...

Prehistoric teeth

Stegosaurus

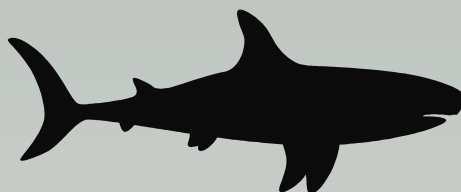

- STEG-oh-SORE-us
- Stegosaurus teeth were the size of a human fingernail.
- Length: 9m
- Weight: 7,000kg

Ptychodus

- tie-coe-dus
- Ptychodus ate shellfish by smashing them between its jaws.
- Length: 10m
- Weight: 4,000kg

Triceratops

- tri-SERRA-tops
- Triceratops had a beak like a parrot's.
- Length: 9m
- Weight: 6,000kg

Tyrannosaurus rex

- tie-RAN-oh-sore-us
- Tyrannosaurus rex had a bite three times as powerful as a lion's.
- Length: 13m
- Weight: 7,000kg

yellow-door.net

Let's investigate Prehistoric Teeth • YD1202

©Yellow Door®