

Growing Cress - Growth Tracking Sheet

Once you have planted your seeds, you will need to observe how they change over time. Use the table below to record your observations, starting with what the seeds looks like when they are first planted.

Date	Observations (Draw or write what you observe)	Measurements (Measure and record the height of your plant)

